

H. R. 3807 (S. 1682) - Federal Executive Service

I. Perfecting Amendments

(a) In section 2 (between lines 7 and 8 on page 33) add:

"(c) This section shall not apply to either the Central Intelligence Agency or its employees."

(b) In section 3 (at line 21, page 34) add:

"(c) This section shall not apply to the Central Intelligence Agency."

II. Explanation of Perfecting Amendments

The Central Intelligence Agency has been specifically exempted from the Federal Executive Service which is established by section 1 of H. R. 3807 (section 3132 (iv)). Sections 2 and 3 of the bill provide certain transitional authorities and related reporting requirements. The perfecting amendments exempt CIA from these sections in order to eliminate any possible conflict with existing provisions of law pertaining to the hiring and firing of CIA personnel and the disclosure or publication of information concerning CIA positions.
